

Tatiana "Ann" Posternak Sadler

August 23, 1914 - April 8, 2016

Jacksonville - Tatiana "Ann" Sadler, 101, passed away on April 8, 2016, at Premier Nursing and Rehabilitation. A private graveside service will be conducted in Pine Grove Cemetery, Lynn, MA.

Ann was born on August 23, 1914 in Lynn, Massachusetts to the late Efrosian Michael and Hariesa Protsukova Posternak, who came to this country from the Ukraine. Ann and her husband Michael, with whom she shared many happy years, moved to Jacksonville, NC in 1983 from Lynn, MA and remained there until their deaths.

She was the first woman to work in one of the Lynn, MA leather factories doing men's work, she ran a farm by herself while Michael served with General Patton in WWII, and until she was 97-years-old, she was up at 5:30 am every morning tending her yard and garden. She lived alone until she was 97-years-old, and only went into a nursing home because she broke both hips. She wouldn't call herself a leader but she lead by example. She was a strong, wonderful, loving lady with a warm smile, and she will long be remembered for her strength and her unconditional love of family.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her son, Michael N Sadler, Jr.; husband, Michael N Sadler; loving sister, Olga Eramian; and oldest daughter, Phyllis Sadler.

Ann leaves behind a loving daughter, Kathryn Smith of Jacksonville, NC; grandchildren, Kirsten Smith of Austin, TX and Brandon Smith of Greenville, NC; great grandchildren and identical twins, Ashton and Ethan Weyrauch of Austin, TX; along with many dear friends who played Skip-Bo, Bunko, and Bingo with her over the years or were fellow members of the Red Hat Society.

Comments

“ Dear Kathryn and Family, I read about the loss of your mother and want to express my sympathy to all of you. May your many wonderful memories bring you comfort during this special time. May your prayers bring you the peace of God with His promise to guard your heart. Philippians 4:6,7 My sincere condolence to all of you.

R. Faust - April 14, 2016 at 05:43 AM

“ My sincere condolences to the Sadler family. Praying that all can have comfort and peace from God during this difficult time. (Psalm 34:18)

Robyn - April 27, 2016 at 05:22 PM